

Effective partnership working to reduce child sexual exploitation in London

Learning from Croydon Eclipse and beyond

Friday 2 July 2010, 9am – 1pm

London Councils, 59½ Southwark Street, SE1 0AL –nearest tube, London Bridge

Agenda

- 09.00 – 09.30            Tea and coffee / registration.
- 09.30 – 09.45            Chair's introduction (Dave Hill, Executive Director for Children's Services, LB Croydon)
- 09.45 – 10.15            Research evidence on Croydon Eclipse's effectiveness in meeting the Home Office Invest to Save outcomes (Dr. Caroline Paskell, Barnardo's Research and Policy Unit)
- 10.15 – 10.30            Progress in delivering better policing outcomes for missing and sexually exploited children in Croydon (Detective Inspector Jackie Wakeford-Smith, Croydon Public Protection Desk)
- 10.30 – 11.15            Recent breakthroughs in identification and investigation of child sexual exploitation in Derbyshire and west Mercia (Mike Hand, U K Human Trafficking Centre)
- 11.15 – 11.30            Tea and coffee
- 11.30 – 12.00            Update on plans to increase prosecution of perpetrators in London (Detective Inspector Kevin Hyland, Metropolitan Police Trafficking and Prostitution Unit)
- 12.00 – 12.40            Choice of workshop session
1.        Working in partnership to improve health outcomes for sexually exploited children and young people (Alison Tormey, Designated Looked After Children's Nurse, Croydon, and Ulrike Thome, Social Worker, Croydon Eclipse).
  2.        Practical and Effective use of London Safeguarding Children Board Child Sexual Exploitation procedures (Sue Cooke, Chair, Croydon Protocol Meetings for Sexually Exploited Children, and Jane Coppock, Children's Services Manager, Croydon Eclipse)
  3.        Preventing sexual exploitation and going missing - work in schools and residential units (Katherine Barnes, Business Manager, Barnardo's London Sexual Exploitation Prevention and Recovery Programme, and Shonagh Brown, Croydon Eclipse Missing Worker).
- 12.40 – 13.00            Chair's concluding remarks
- 13.00                      Lunch